

Erick Erickson

Erick Erickson lived in Huxley, Iowa and worked for his father, Lewis, as a farm hand.

He served during WWI. He was in the 330th Infantry Regiment. He was shipped to France on September 23, 1918, where he served until January of 1919, when he returned home on the Frederick.

If you know more about this person, please contact us at slaterhist@huxcomm.net.